A Message to the La Lido Loca Community

For those of you who don't know me yet, my name is Chuck Cinelli, and for nearly a decade I've been hosting group trips to Italy that have grown into a true travel community. Since 2016, I've personally brought about 700 travelers to Italy—many returning two, three, four, even five times thanks to the camaraderie, laughter, and shared love of exploring new places together. What began as a small group has evolved into a vibrant travel club built on connection, joy, and authentic experiences.

Now, I'm excited to bring that same spirit somewhere new—and even more excited to be teaming up with my longtime friend, Tony Barnette. You already know Tony as the creator of the La Lido Loca brand, a respected voice in the cruise and travel world, and a trusted guide through all things vacation-related.

Together, we're hosting an unforgettable journey through Ireland, where Tony and I will serve as your hosts—bringing warmth, energy, and a focus on community every step of the way. Our goal is simple: to create an experience where guests quickly become friends sharing a meaningful adventure, not just moving through a checklist of sights.

And Ireland is the perfect place for that kind of experience. Picture us discovering the lively streets of Dublin, enjoying an authentic Irish Evening of music and culture, and wandering through medieval gems like Kilkenny and Waterford. You'll even choose between touring the famed Waterford Crystal Factory or exploring the Medieval Museum and historic Wine Vault.

We'll stand atop the dramatic Cliffs of Moher, roll through Killarney on a traditional jaunting car ride, and take in the rugged beauty of the Ring of Kerry. We'll watch a skilled sheepdog demonstration in the countryside, explore Galway's charm, and finish it all off with a stay in an authentic Irish castle—an unforgettable finale to a truly magical journey.

Whether you've traveled with a community like this before or you're joining for the first time, this trip is designed to be more than a tour. It's an invitation to be part of a shared story—to explore, connect, laugh, and experience Ireland in a way that's personal, memorable, and genuinely fun.
